DAY 4

Fairbanks (500km)

Cross over into the United States today (visa required) and travel the Alaska Highway, passing through a chain of small towns such as Tok, Delta Junction and Eielson.

DAY 5

Denali National Park (265km)

Today's route takes you along the George Parks Highway, across the Tanana River and onto Denali National Park. Driving south you'll soon see Mount Denali, North America's tallest peak, that marks the entrance to the park.

DAY 6

Denali National Park

Today is a day at leisure to explore the area – keep a watch out for wildlife that live in this area, including Dall sheep, moose, grizzly bears and deer.

DAY 7

Anchorage (380km)

Continue southbound today, traversing vast woodlands of spruce, birch and aspen. The dense evergreen forests and windswept mountains give way to the lush Matanuska River Valley.

DAY 8

Anchorage

Today take time to explore Alaska's largest city at your own pace. Perhaps visit the Alaska Native Heritage Centre. You can take a stroll through the beautiful displays of the Anchorage Botanical Gardens and end the day with the famous Alaskan king crab.

DAY 9

Tok (520km)

Today you travel east along highways just above fjords and inlets. This is a popular area to stop and take advantage of the easy walking trail that parallels the glacier and the Matanuska River.

DAY 10

Dawson City (300km)

Cross back into Canada at Little Gold Camp – the highest border crossing. Following the aptly named Top-of-the-World Highway, the road continues onto the riverside town of Dawson City, one of the major focal points of the Gold Rush.

DAY 11

Dawson City

Relive the days of prospecting with a day exploring this historic city. Many original buildings have stood the test of time while others have been faithfully restored to their original grandeur. We recommend a visit to Diamond Tooth Gertie's Gambling Hall, Canada's oldest and most unique casino.
