

The Ghan has taken travellers on the ultimate adventure through the heart of Australia since 1929.

Enjoy one of the great train journeys of the world travelling 1, 559 kilometres over two days and one night from Alice Springs to Adelaide. This route was originally travelled by Afghan camel drivers who supplied the interior in the days before the railway. Watch the passing scenery change from the rusty hues of Australia's Red Centre to the fertile countryside of South Australia as you travel through the heart of the continent.
