

The Ghan has taken travellers on the ultimate adventure through the heart of Australia since 1929.

Enjoy one of the great train journeys of the world travelling 1,559 kilometres over two days and one night, from Alice Springs to Adelaide. This route was originally travelled by Afghan camel drivers who supplied the interior in the days before the railway. Watch the passing scenery change from the rusty hues of Australia's Red Centre to the fertile countryside of South Australia as you travel through the heart of the continent.

Platinum Service

This is the highest level of service. Cabins are configured by day as a private lounge with panoramic windows, comfortable seating, a table and ottomans. By night this converts to double or twin beds. You also have a full-size ensuite shower room. Continental breakfast can be enjoyed in your cabin as well as refreshments. The Platinum Club is where the included hearty breakfasts, 2-course lunches and 3-course evening meals, are served along with a complimentary range of beverages.

Gold Service

Gold service cabins are configured with a 3-seater lounge by day, which converts to upper and lower berths by night. Cabins have a private ensuite and the all-inclusive meals are served in the Queen Adelaide Restaurant. Australian wines, beers, a selection of spirits and non-alcoholic beverages are also included. Gold Superior cabins are available which have a little more space and give the option of a three-quarter size double bed plus a fold-down berth.
