

The Indian Pacific has been crossing the country for almost 50 years and this is a truly memorable way to see Australia. Travel the length of the Nullarbor Plain on this fabulous train journey between Adelaide and Perth.

Platinum Service

This is the highest level of service. Cabins are configured by day as a private lounge with panoramic windows, comfortable seating, a table and ottomans. By night this converts to double or twin beds. You also have a full-size ensuite shower room. Continental breakfast can be enjoyed in your cabin as well as refreshments. The Platinum Club is where the included hearty breakfasts, 2-course lunches and 3-course evening meals, are served along with a complimentary range of beverages.

Gold Service

Gold service cabins are configured with a 3-seater lounge by day, which converts to upper and lower berths by night. Cabins have a private ensuite and the all-inclusive meals are served in the Queen Adelaide Restaurant. Australian wines, beers, a selection of spirits and non-alcoholic beverages are also included. Gold Superior cabins are available which have a little more space and give the option of a three-quarter size double bed plus a fold-down berth.

Day 1 Adelaide

Your journey begins before you even step on board with a welcome dinner experience at the Adelaide Terminal. You'll share fabulous food and wine with your fellow travellers before the evening departure from Adelaide. Once on board, your train host will show you to your cabin where you can relax or perhaps head for the Outback Lounge for a nightcap.

Meal(s) Included: Dinner

Day 2 The Nullabor

Today is a day of solitude and epic timeless landscapes as The Indian Pacific makes its way across the mighty Nullabor Plain. Relax in your cabin or join fellow guests for this memorable day travelling the longest single stretch of railway in Australia. This evening a short stop is made in Rawlinna for pre-dinner drinks and canapés under the stars. Dinner is served back on board.
