Day 1 Sydney

After your flight into Sydney you'll be met and transferred to your hotel.

Sydney is quite simply dazzling, whichever way you turn. The 'sails' of the Opera House etched against the vivid blue of the sky, the dark girders of the Sydney Harbour Bridge teeming with ant-sized climbers, whilst the gold and green Sydney Harbour ferries ply their way across the harbour, the perfect way to get around.

Your Accommodation: Holiday Inn Old Sydney (4 Star Hotel)

Days 2–3 Hunter Valley (249 kms)

Hop in your car and head out of the city for the gentle panoramas of the Hunter Valley. This region is home to some of the big boys of the wine-world but likewise a sizeable number of family-owned and run boutique vineyards. Enjoy a day exploring or take a hot air balloon flight for a birds-eye view of the vineyards.

Your Accommodation: Spicers Guest house (4.5 Star Hotel)
Meal(s) Included: Breakfast

Day 4 Port Stephens (100 kms)

Dolphins are the order of the day today as you head for the coast. Port Stephens plays host to a resident pod of more than 150 bottle nose dolphins and the best way to get amongst them is on a wildlife cruise.

Your Accommodation: Bannister's Port Stephens (4 Star Hotel)

Day 5 Coffs Harbour (399 kms)

This popular holiday destination offers a combination of golden sands and dense rainforest.

Your Accommodation: Aanuka Beach Resort (4 Star Hotel)

Days 6-7 Byron Bay (239 kms)

One of our all-time favourite spots in Australia. Known for its surf-vibe and alternative lifestyle, Byron Bay also plays host to some exceptional dining, art galleries and truly glorious beaches. Plus it's the perfect spot to try your hand at surfing, stand-up paddle boarding or enjoy a sea kayaking adventure.

Your Accommodation: The Byron at Byron Resort & Spa (4.5 Star Hotel)

Day 8 Brisbane (165 kms)

Take a stroll on the epic swathes of beach at Surfers Paradise as you head north or follow the Rainforest Way through the Gold Coast Hinterland and experience verdant rainforest, tumbling waterfalls and inviting country towns.

Your Accommodation: Emporium Hotel South Bank (4.5 Star Hotel)
