

A politics school trip to New York will allow your students to learn more about US Political History and Civil Rights, to explore the origins of this movement and its effects throughout American history but also witness first-hand the effects of mass immigration on a city.

Fascinating educational visits, exciting attractions and world-renowned museums, a visit to the 'Big Apple' is an excellent option to stimulate and reinforce pupil learning.

Take the opportunity to explore the diverse neighbourhood of Harlem on our multi-media Civil Rights tour and visit the Ellis Island Immigration Museum, where the journey for most American arrivals originally began.
