

The stunning setting of the Bay of Naples with towering cliffs overlooking villages dotted along the coastline has an enduring appeal and makes a perfect location for an Italian language and cultural school tour.

Perched on top of steep, white cliffs, Sorrento is a beautiful resort town, which offers spectacular views across the Bay of Naples. The relaxed atmosphere makes Sorrento the perfect base for your Italian school trip, allowing you to explore the fascinating city of Naples, the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum and the elegant island of Capri.

You can visit the volcanic landscape of Vesuvius National park, take a stunning drive along the Amalfi coastal road.

Tourism is a crucial part of the economy in the Sorrento region, and Sorrento is a prime example of a popular Italian resort that attracts international visitors.

Learn all about the very best of Italian cuisine and learn more about the region's local delicacies, enjoy a tour of an olive oil factory, and gain an appreciation of the passion that is needed to make traditional Italian products.
