

London has played an ever-present role in the world's history! On a school History trip to London, your group can cover a large range of themes from the Tudors and the Stuarts, Medicine in Britain, London in the Blitz, Crime and Punishment and Migration to Britain – all in one trip!

Educational sessions and workshops are available as well as guided tours to ensure that the History students maximise their learning. Just do not forget to allow some time for a West End Show and some serious sightseeing and shopping to round it all off!
