

A school Arts trip to New York will allow your students see some of the most dynamic contemporary art in the world, visit modern art museums including the MoMA or Guggenheim, as well as unbeatable sketching and photography opportunities whilst visiting the iconic sights of New York and the bright lights of Broadway.

Enjoy a Broadway performance first-hand and enjoy a half-day workshop at New York City's premier film academy where students will make their own short film and, in the process, learn screenwriting, editing, directing, and producing.

Take a tour of one of NBC's world-famous studios. Your tour will start in the new 4K theatre where you'll watch a short film documenting the history of NBC. Learn all about the TV production process, including scriptwriting and producing. You'll even have the chance to produce your own show in the Tour Studio!
