

One lift pass combines two of the most beautiful Tyrolean resorts Kühtai and Hochoetz. Austria's highest alpine village and one of its prettiest as featured in the Channel 4 Celebrity Challenge "The Jump",

Quiet slopes, a reliable snow record and a short transfer from Innsbruck make Kühtai a great Austrian destination.

Located close to the centre of the Tyrolean capital Innsbruck, Kuhtai-Hochoetz Ski Resorts offer superb skiing for all standards. Situated in such an elevated position, these resorts enjoy a long ski season and maintain perfect conditions from the beginning of December until the end of April.

School ski groups can be assured of a memorable winter experience in this fabulous Austrian resort.

RESORT INFORMATION

As Austria's highest ski village – in fact it is one of the Alps' highest resorts – the snow in Kühtai is as reliable as it can get.

For freestylers there are excellent facilities, with a big snowpark, a superpipe and skicross course dotted across the mountainside. Note too that your lift pass gives you access to the Hochoetz ski area a little further to the west.
