

On a Spanish language tour to Andalusia, your school group will experience the region that, for many, encapsulates the essence of Spain, where the Old Towns are bustling with locals, the architecture is inspiring, and the tapas is always delicious.

Home to the best Spanish cultural scene in southern Spain, a school language trip to Malaga showcases Spanish art, beautiful Moorish architecture, passionate flamenco and Spanish traditions.

All this lies only miles inland from the Costa del Sol, which in complete contrast is one of Europe's most developed holiday resorts.

CURRICULUM LINKS

Key Stage 3 groups will be able to use this opportunity to expand their vocabulary from exploring the town to eating out and cultural traditions. GCSE students will improve their confidence in using Spanish in conversation with native speakers and A-Level students can develop their understanding of Spanish-speaking society and regional identity.
