

Bondone may be a smaller ski resort, but it more than compensates with a diverse array of technical slopes. Located in the southern part of Monte Bondone, it's ideal for all skiers, including beginners. This charming resort offers doorstep skiing and numerous amenities, creating a perfect environment for new skiers.

The learner area is conveniently within walking distance of hotels and ski hire shops. Beginners can head straight to the learner area and then progress directly onto a long, wide blue run. For intermediate skiers, the Alpe Cimbra ski area provides a great variety of slopes, a fantastic snow park, and even the option for night skiing.

We highly recommend this resort for coach groups as the roads leading up the mountain are much easier to navigate compared to those leading to Folgarida, Madonna, or Marilleva, making coach travel more convenient.
