

Chamrousse invites your school ski group to discover its 75 km of marked trails and 30 ski lifts for all levels. Your school group can experience skiing in the middle of the forest on simple slopes adapted to beginners as well as your intermediate skiers.

The most adventurous skiers will discover the Olympic slopes as well as the fantastic Casserousse corridor that allows you to descend more than 850m of altitude difference in an exceptional setting. If you come during the February half term, be sure to go down the illuminated Gaboureaux track and admire the beautiful sunset.

Chamrousse resort is located at the tip of the Belledonne massif, just 30 km from Grenoble. It is easily reachable from Calais within 13 hours.
