

Serre Chevalier is a superb valley that begins at the Lautaret and Galibier passes and ends more than 20 km further in Briançon, Europe's highest city. A flagship resort in the Hautes Alpes, Serre Chevalier is made up of 4 villages that have managed to keep their mountain soul. The resort is known for its exceptional sunshine and its azure, blue sky.

The resort has a variety of slopes, including beginner areas, longer greens, and areas for intermediate and expert skiers. A total of 80 kilometres of slopes are covered by snow cannons to supplement natural snowfall. The resort invested in a new beginner's area in 2024 and now features a 150m long covered magic carpet lift.

School groups have the option of flying into Grenoble (1.5-hour transfer from airport) or the resort is easily reachable by coach (13 hours from Calais).
