Manager Commentary

Despite Iran-related uncertainty UK Smaller Companies performed robustly. It is notable to see UK domestic firms pushing up into the Top 10, indicative of the attractive value and positive inflection we see available.

Kier surged 24% to the #2 spot as improved margin targets were announced. Fellow constructor Morgan Sindall would have occupied that position were it not for profit taking after its own leap of 18.1% on high demand for office fit outs. First Group was another new Top 10 entrant. Three years of hard work by new management is generating strong cash flow from their bus and rail franchises allowing accretive acquisitions including in London. Shares accelerated 20.7% this month. Filtronic, global leader in satellite and ground station transceivers, also hit the heady heights of the Top 10. Multiple contract wins including from lead customer SpaceX saw a second consecutive stratospheric gain, up 27%. Top individual contributor was Volex. As a global assembler of sophisticated electronic connectors, shares have been hurt by tariff fears. An electrifying +32.4% rise included +17.3% on the day of results, with robust growth proving doubters wrong. Now called Greatland Resources, completion of dual listing in Australia aided another 16.2% rise for the top stock. And recent UK AIM IPO accountant MHA leapt 20.5% on a strong trading update. All the above each contributed more than the surprise 23% drop on a profit warning by now exited housebuilder MJ Gleeson in what has been an improving sector. Domestic joiners include housing owner Grainger; retailers Halfords and B&M Bargains; game developer Frontier; paver and roofer Marshalls and lastly North Sea oil producer Ithaca prudently reduced our underweight to oil given the Iran situation but also potential UK tax rate cuts.
